The Governing Board affirms College facilities may be used for educational, cultural, and other community activities. The Governing Board authorizes the Chancellor or designee to regulate the use of College facilities, provided the activities conducted therein are consistent with applicable policies, guidelines, laws, rules, and regulations.

Further, the Governing Board authorizes the College to permit the limited consumption of alcoholic beverages on College property. The Board directs the Chancellor or designee to develop procedures governing such use in a responsible manner and which ensure full compliance with all laws and regulations. ~~The initial Administrative Procedure shall authorize consumption of alcoholic beverages on College property only at events hosted by the PCC Foundation.~~
