The Governing Board directs the Chancellor to provide and maintain for employees, students and visitors of Pima Community College (“College”) a safe environment free from the hazards associated with drugs and alcohol use. This policy is intended to ensure the College’s compliance with applicable provisions of the Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1988 and Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act Amendments of 1989.

At the direction of the Chancellor or designee, and at least once every two years, the College shall adopt procedures necessary to effectuate this policy, including, but not limited to, procedures necessary for program-specific requirements.
